FACULTY	138-139
ADVERTISEMENTS	152-153
SENIOR INDEX	164-165

The purpose of this Scimitar is to envelop the year of 1959-60 and unfold all of its events, experiences and memories each time it is reviewed. For those who were sophomores and juniors, it will be a yearbook to remind you of one of your three years at Lorain High. For those of us who were seniors, it will be a keepsake of what we consider the most important year of our public education — our senior year. The 1960 Scimitar is an attempt to capture and record the character, feelings and activities of the student body, especially of the graduating seniors.

F. N. A. PROMOTES NURSING

The Future Nurses of America was originated in February of 1956 for girls interested in nursing as a career. Mrs. Audra Smith is the sponsor and advisor to about sixty girls. Some of the Club's activities include visiting St. Joseph's Hospital, entertaining guest speakers in the medical field, and working on welfare projects, but the most popular events are the Mother-and-Daughter Tea and the annual Christmas Banquet.

The activities of Junior Y-Teens this year are illustrative of the service at the club to the school and community. In addition to making their aid available at the concession stands at Lorain High School Sporting events they annually sponsor the Y-Teens dance. The girls make toys, favors, and amusements for the underprivileged and hospitalized. They sponsor a charity basket. To secure funds they hold their own bake sale.

SOPHOMORE Y-TEENS SERVE THE SCHOOL.

Sophomore Y-Teens

The Lorain High School Y-Teen groups are girls' clubs organized to serve their school and their community. Through a series of carefully planned and supervised activities spread throughout the school year these girls prove that teen-agers can be useful, productive members of society. Sophomore Y-Teens provides an introduction to an unselfish and altruistic frame of mind.

Officers of Sophomore Y-Teens — Linda Bornstein, Secretary; Betsy Donaldson, Vice President; Carolyn Palermo, President; Judy Goldberger, Treasurer.

COUNCIL LINKS FACULTY TO STUDENTS.

Lorain High School Student Council is the elected representative body of Lorain High School students and serves the purpose of providing a closer relationship between the faculty and the student body. Every two weeks the councilmen, one from each home room, meet to discuss the betterment of Lorain High School by developing responsibility, initiative, fellowship, and school spirit among the students, promoting worthwhile citizenship training, providing for student self-expression, and setting up for the student a working model of the government in which he lives.

LORAIN TEAMS ONWARD

"A yell, a yell; We have no yell, But when we yell, We yell like L-O-R-A-I-N. Lorain!" Do you remember that yell? Of Course you do. The Pep Club made sure of that at every game and event in the Lorain High School schedule. Organized to rally school spirit and draw everyone up behind the team, these girls have been more than a small factor in our success.

RADIO CLUB STUDIES ELECTRONICS

Authorities agree that electronics is the coming field. The recent advance made in cyrogenics foreshadow major breakthroughs which will ultimately affect every phase of our life. One has only to look at how the science of electronics has already changed our environment to realize the truth of this. The Radio Club provides the student with the opportunity to familiarize himself with this fascinating line of work.

G. A. A. SPURS SPORTS

The Girls' Athletic Association is composed of all girls who have participated to a sufficient extent in intramural sports. Girls play volleyball, ping-pong, and badminton after school, securing points depending upon the time they spend. Those accumulating 250 or more points are invited to join G.A.A.

G.A.A. Officers, Mickey Krase — president, Pat Fush — secretary, Carol Deehr — treasurer, and Chris Kingsley — vice-president seem to have been caught discussing their "favorite" picture.

The tremendous scope of the Scimitar, attempting to record the thoughts and the feelings of 2,000 people for three years of their lives, is indicative of the futility of our task. The work of shifting through hundreds of photographs and records of events over the school year, selecting those which will truly represent the spirit of life at Lorain High School, and arranging these in a presentable manner is Herculean. If we have managed to brighten the memories of only a few people many years from now as they look back on this period of their lives, we shall feel that our small effort has not been in vain.

In January, 1960, the Lorain Chapter of Mu Alpha Theta, a national high school mathematics club, was organized to promote interest in mathematics and to bring advanced topics and materials to superior students. Since its membership is restricted to the better pupils the programs freely draw upon advanced algebra, analytic geometry, and trigonometry as they explore areas such as new and unusual number systems, etc.

THE CHESS CLUB IS REORGANIZED

Chess is what is known as a game of complete information. That is, there is no chance, no probability, no information that is withheld from either player at any time. Both know exactly what the situation is, and both hold their fate entirely in their own hands. For this reason it has been stated that in chess there is no luck: the better player will always win the game. The mental training afforded the student of this game is tremendous — learning to handle a complexity of units scattered over a wide front, each with its own peculiarities and vulnerabilities. He who does not call upon all his powers of insight, logic, foresight, and care is soon doomed on the chess board.

I. R. C. STRENGTHENS NEIGHBORLY BONDS.

In a world constantly shrinking at an ever-increasing rate, due to technological advance, it becomes more important to provide a sound basis of understanding among the peoples of all nations of the earth. The International Relations Club was created at Lorain High to fulfill this need. Through a wide program of speakers having made trips abroad, research projects, and particularly foreign-exchange students the club puts the relationships of every student with our neighbors in other parts of the world on a personal basis.

EXPERT DEBATERS MAKE UP FORENSIC CLUB

Forensic Debate: Language; Jam Session; Music. A debate is one of the most spontaneous bursts of expression of the English language. It is argument for its own sake — for the pleasure and relish of the sport itself. This is not to say that it is infantile or that nothing lasting comes of it; on the contrary, it is a high form of art only properly appreciated by those steeped in the way of letters. The beauty of form and classification and mode of argument which pass unnoticed to most in the excitement reveal themselves to the aesthetic listener.

The A Cappella Choir is the foremost vocal group in the Lorain Public School System. The spirit of the group is something that will never be forgotten by anyone who was a member. Everyone joins in to work with and for everyone else to their mutual benefit. Invitation to join is highly selective, and the standards held by the choir are set and maintained at a professional level at all times. The secret of its success is contained in the following quotation: "The enemy of the best is not the worst, but the good

SHOWBOAT

Every year the showboat, Cotton Blossom, stops at a small town in the South. The showboat is run by Captain Andy Hawks and he in turn is run by his wife, Parthy. Captain Hawks is faced with the problem of finding a leading man and woman for his show since Steven Baker and Julie Dozier are asked to leave the showboat because Julie is a mulatto. He finds for his leading man a river boat gambler whose name is Gaylord Ravenal and for his leading lady he uses his eighteen year old daughter, Magnolia. They fall in love and are married. Everything is well until Gaylord's luck runs out and she is forced to go back to singing for a career. Twenty years later the two meet again on the showboat.

The Girls' Choir provides the high school girl with an opportunity to participate in female-voice choral singing of High quality. In junior-high, and prior, there seldom exists a sufficient quantity of good singers to justify the creation of such an organization, but on the high-school level its feasibility becomes evident, and anyone who has listened to the group will testify to its effectiveness as an art form.

THE CADET BAND

The cadet band provides a fund of available players from which the concert band may draw as openings occur. Students in cadet band are taught the principles of marching and gain experience in large ensemble technique which they will find invaluable as they move into the more rigid standards of concert Band.

Two of the officers for the Cadet Band are Linda Fyre and Henry Harsar.

FEATURES ALFRED GALLOPORO

Starting with the Marching Band and practicing early in the fall for the coming football and parade season, the band's work is not over until the final note of the coda of "Pomp and Circumstance" fades out at the June Commencement.

On Senior A Distinction Day, Sharon Emery took over the duties of Mr. Freeman. Here she directs the Band.

DRAMA PRODUCE CALLED

Story: Peter Marshall has gathered into his home the young people of the community. He makes their joys and sorrows his own. His wife knows how ready he is to overtax his strength in behalf of others, but he good-humoredly evades her efforts to shield him. To Peter Marshall life is service. Sometimes this means he gives offense to the more conservative elements in the church. He even opposes a distinguished senator when he finds him determined to jail a boy who has erred but is now de-etermined to live honestly. The burden becomes heavier when his wife's health fails and then his own, just as he is about to start a new and important undertaking. But in the finale we see the indomitable spirit of Peter Marshall triumphing over every threat.

Around May 6th these signs, which are being held up by the members of the D.A. Play Committees, were a familiar sight, especially to the students of L.H.S.

Enacting a tender scene between Peter Marshall and his wife, Catherine, are Barb Toth and Darryl Dobras.

A few of the players were accidentally caught while 'preparing' to make their entrance.

Above: Expecting the unexpected, Clarence Orr pours the final ingredient into his potion at arms length. Dale Snodgrass and Steve Stolic look on.

Right: "But, I yell you, I can't find any ions in here, Mr. Cotton."

"Beware it's the Gachmoty"

In humble gratitude and appreciation to the residents around L.H.S.

AROUND L. H. S.

Louis Montgomery address Student Council while Jeff Hanna and Linda Hawkins look on.

Head coaches Art Lave and Don White coached our team to a tie for the Buckeye Championship.

Contributing to a successful season were assistant coaches Steve Dohanous, Angelo Bangas and Tony Misko.

Cheering the JV basketball and football teams are cheerleaders Marge Kordeleski, Barb McGuire, Sue Romoser and Mary Ann Denocolo.

Caught during a practice at the stadium are cheerleaders Penny Kellog, Joanne Grills, Bev Kutting, Jane Szalay, Judy Straka, and Barb Wardwell. The girls lead all the cheers during football season and lead the Pep Club during basketball season. Their pep, spirit and the co-ordinance have made them one of the first groups of cheerleaders L.H.S. has had.

Bev Kutting shouts that familiar line, "Readeo, lets go!" that starts off all the cheers.

Executing that high step are the Lorain High majorettes, Joyce Vick, Page Miner, Mary Bullock, Sue Hait, Gayle Simpson, Madelyn Chapla, Diane Muzek and Betty Ann Russo.

Somebody dropped the ball.

Lorain

Every foot of ground was bitterly contested in the Lorain-Marion game.

scores again.

Blue Streaks draw first blood, as Martin, Rodgers and Warfield watch.

To Bonnie,
I hope in these next 5 years we have as much fun as this past one.
You've been a wonderful friend with a swell personality. Remember our last 2 "parties" and our walks for ice cream. We had more fun than ever — let's keep it up. Good luck with all those days. A friend forever,
Dianne
